

PUBLIC SERVICE CAREER FAIR
MARCH 5, 2008
11:00 A.M. - 2:00 P.M., Campus Center
Sponsored by the Career Center

Acelero Learning Camden Early Head Start

The mission of Acelero Learning is to partner with local communities to provide comprehensive experiences that enrich the lives of young children and their families. We are committed to supporting the highest quality programs that support the cognitive, physical, social, and emotional growth of all children. We strive to meet the needs of a diverse multi-cultural population and to foster successful home, school, and community partnerships.

We, at Acelero, believe that: Our highest priority is to foster positive outcomes for children and families. Our environment must be nurturing and also meet the highest health and safety standards. Curriculum should include child-directed activities, to promote children's independence and strong sense of self. Children learn better after their nutritional, health and mental health needs are met. Children with disabilities learn best in an inclusive, least-restricted environment. Families from diverse backgrounds enrich the quality of our programs. Our well-qualified, well-trained, professional staff is essential to providing an excellent program. For more information, visit www.acelero.com

Arc of Burlington County

The Arc of Burlington County is a non-profit private agency serving people with mental retardation and other developmental disabilities throughout Burlington County. We provide a variety of programs.

The programs and services provided enable these individuals to become productive members of the community. Students majoring in English, Psychology, Social Sciences, and related fields who have an interest in social services will want to speak with The Arc's representatives. They will have information on positions as Direct Support professionals. Website www.arcofburlington.org

Atlantic County Prosecutor's Office

The Atlantic County Prosecutor's Office is the leading law enforcement agency in Atlantic County. Our office reviews all indictable offenses that occur within our jurisdiction and is responsible for prosecuting serious cases in Superior Court. We conduct independent investigations as well as assisting local police departments. Our office has several investigative units, including Homicide, Narcotics and Crimes Against Children. Currently our staff includes 15 Agents, 44 Investigators, 19

Sergeants, 8 Lieutenants, 4 Captains and 31 Assistant Prosecutors. We are currently looking to hire Investigators and Agents. (Agents are not sworn law enforcement personnel). Both positions require a four year degree. For more information, visit www.acpo.org.

Bancroft NeuroHealth

Founded in 1883 by Philadelphia special education pioneer Margaret Bancroft, the organization began as one of the first schools for children with developmental disabilities. Today it is a multi-faceted, non-profit organization that provides a wide range of human services to individuals with developmental disabilities and brain injury. Bancroft Neurohealth has information about career fields in Nursing, Psychology, Sociology, Social Work and Vocational/Special Education. Opportunities with this organization range from Program Assistants to Rehabilitation Assistants. Many of the positions are entry-level. They are interested in talking with students in all majors but especially those in the Behavioral Sciences, Education, Human Services, Nursing, Social Sciences, and Social Work. Visit www.bancroftneurohealth.org for more information.

Bethanna

Bethanna, a Christian non-profit organization, provides a wide range of social services to children and families in the greater Philadelphia area. These services have been provided to the community for over 50 years via programs including Residential Treatment, Adoption, Foster Care, Treatment Foster Care, Kinship Care and Out-Patient Mental Health care.. Opportunities exist for those interested in careers as Behavior Specialists, Educators, Social Workers, Mental Health Clinicians and Workers, Therapists, Direct Treatment Workers, and Family Development Specialists. Representatives from Bethanna will be available to talk with students about the agency and its challenging full-time, summer and internship opportunities. Visit web site at www.bethanna.org.

Boys & Girls Club of Camden County

The Boys & Girls Club of Camden County is a Club that builds character through everyday leadership and guidance to youth ages six through eighteen. Our Mission “To enable all young people, especially those who need us most, to reach their full potential as productive, caring and responsible citizens.” Boys & Girls Clubs build character through everyday leadership and guidance in behavior and attitude. Young people of all nationalities, races and creeds join together in wholesome recreation and companionship. Trained professional staff provide positive adult mentors and role models. Nationally recognized programs help young people succeed in school, stay healthy, learn important life skills, pursue interests in the arts and sports, and explore vocational choices. For more information, visit www.bandgccc.org

Boys & Girls Club of Camden County - Parkside Clubhouse 1709 Park Blvd. Camden, NJ 08103, (856) 966-9700

Boys & Girls Club of Camden County - East Camden Clubhouse, 2 South Dudley Street, Camden, NJ 08105 (856)963

Catholic Charities, Diocese of Trenton

Catholic Charities is a faith-inspired human services agency whose mission is to provide quality services to those most in need, to advocate on their behalf, and to strengthen the communities in which they live and work. We provide services through 52 programs at 34 service sites and 64 residential facilities. The agency needs Caseworkers, Clinical Nurse Specialists, Counselors, Family Intervention Specialists, House Manager, Family Support Specialists, Job Coach, Mental Health Workers, MICA Specialist, Program Supervisor, RNs and Social Workers. Students with a background/interest in counseling, psychology, nursing, sociology, human services and social work will want to talk with the representatives from Catholic Charities. www.catholiccharitiestrenton.org

Cerebral Palsy of New Jersey

Cerebral Palsy of NJ enhances the lives of people with disabilities and enables full participation in society through advocacy, direct services, and education. Cerebral Palsy of NJ provides services to advance the independence of children and adults with all types of disabilities. We believe people with disabilities have the right to participate fully in society. These services can range from transitional and employment services to assistive technology, technical assistance and advocacy services. Counselors and Community Integration Specialists provide both challenging work and job satisfaction. Representatives from Cerebral Palsy of NJ have information about current opportunities for full/part-time and summer jobs and job requirements. For more information visit www.cpfnj.org.

City Year Greater Philadelphia

City Year is a national service organization challenging 17-24 year olds to dedicate a year to becoming an integral part of social change through national service and leadership development. Each year more than 1,500 corps members serve nationwide on diverse programs/projects.

City Year Greater Philadelphia corps members work with middle and elementary school students to improve learning and life success and teach the values of service and responsibility. While helping communities in Philadelphia, corps members are earning money for their higher education. and other benefits. City Year representatives want to talk with students from any major about the interesting community service projects that the organization sponsors. Visit www.cityyear.org/philadelphia for more information.

Clean Water Action

Clean Water Action is a national organization of diverse people and groups working together fo

- * Clean Water – Assuring supplies of clean, safe and affordable water for all Americans.
- * Protecting Health – Preventing health-threatening pollution at its source.
- * Creating Jobs – Building an economy based on environmentally safe jobs and businesses.
- * Making Democracy Work – Empowering people to take charge of our environmental future.

Currently hiring FT & PT community organizers/activists to work on upcoming environmental/political campaigns. Previous campaign or activist work a plus, but not necessary. We train everyone. For more information, visit www.cleanwateraction.org/pa.

Community Options

Community Options, Inc. is a national non-profit organization whose mission is to develop residential and employment opportunities for people with severe developmental disabilities. We are looking for people who are at least 18yrs of age, with a valid DL and a strong desire to help, to provide direct care fo to those in need. Information will be available from these representatives about Community Support Managers, Community Support Staff and substitute staff. For more information, visit www.comop.org.

Community Planning and Advocacy Council

AmeriCorps*VISTA is a national service program dedicated to eliminating poverty by helping individuals and low-income neighborhoods make positive changes for themselves. VISTA members can choose from projects throughout the country based on their skills. CPAC, The Community Planning & Advocacy Council maximizes the resources of Camden County's system of social services through planning, advocacy and coordination of programs and services that affect the health and well-being of Camden County residents of all ages. CPAC's efforts result in improvements in and the development of new programs or services in many areas, including health, mental health, senior citizens, children and human services. As an independent, non-partisan, non-profit organization, CPAC can form unique partnerships between the private and public sector which quickly respond to community issues. Working with over 300 social service agencies and numerous public and private organizations in Camden County, CPAC helps to identify problems and create community solutions. Representatives from CPAC will be available to speak with students in any major

Deborah Heart and Lung Center

Deborah Heart & Lung Center is a 161 bed acute care Hospital Specializing in Heart Lung and Vascular Services. The Division of Social Services of the Deborah Heart and Lung Center provides a variety of services such as: inpatient case assessment, discharge planning, nursing home and rehabilitation placements, and support group individual/family services, referrals to community resources, and financial counseling. Information will be available about the Nursing, Social Work and Social Service fields in a hospital setting. This includes internship, and field placement opportunities. Visit www.deborah.org.

Family Service

Family Service, a private, non-profit community agency, provides behavioral health and wellness services to adults, children and families in over nine counties throughout southern and central New Jersey. Over the past 40 years, Family Service has grown. There are a variety of opportunities in the Human Service field with Family Service. The representative from Family Service is interested in speaking with students that have an interest or undergraduate/graduate background in Behavioral Science, Human Services, Mental Health, Social Service, and Social Work. Visit their web site at www.fam-serv.org.

Federal Bureau of Prisons

The Federal Detention Center, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, is part of the Federal Bureau of Prisons, that are located throughout the United States. The Federal Detention Center, houses both male and female offenders. There are a cadre of females offenders, who are serving their sentences within our facility, that have been found guilty and sentences to time in prison. More information is available at bop.gov

Gateway Foundation

Gateway Foundation operates nearly 40 corrections-based programs and provides treatment to men, women, adolescents and dually diagnosed substance abusers. Gateway takes great pride in the successful reputation we have built based on the services we currently provide. Gateway Foundation provides effective and efficient treatment to reduce abuse of alcohol and other drugs, as well as the frequently co-occurring mental health problems in persons serviced by the Foundation. Opportunities exist for those who have an interest or background in addiction counseling, criminal justice, psychology, social work and related fields. Representatives will be able to provide information on opportunities, job requirements and how to apply. Go to www.gatewayfoundation.org to learn more about the organization.

Internal Revenue Service

The Internal Revenue Service is the largest tax collection agency in the world with over 100,000 employees. The Internal Revenue Service seeks people with a high degree of independence for positions as Revenue Officer, Revenue Agent and Special Agents, Tax Specialists and Tax Compliance Officers. Revenue Agent requires a bachelors degree and 24 accounting credits plus 6 credits in other business classes. Special Agent requires a bachelors degree including 18 credit hours in accounting. Students in any major can be considered for Revenue Officer positions. The IRS representatives have information about challenging work assignments, career progression, continuing education benefits and how to get started. Visit www.irs.gov.

Lutheran Children and Family Service

Lutheran Children and Family Service (LCFS) of Eastern Pennsylvania, an affiliate of Liberty Lutheran Services, has been bringing hope and opportunity to children and families in need since 1922. LCFS provides specific services to ensure that children have a safe, healthy and permanent place in their own homes and schools. These services are offered through a variety of programs--Family preservation, Services to children in their homes, Truancy prevention, Parenting education, Family building and Nurse family partnerships. Representatives will be available to talk with students about the opportunities in Nursing and Social Work. Visit www.lcfsinpa.org for more information.

Naval Inventory Control Point

The Mission of the Naval Inventory Control Point (NAVICP) is to provide program and supply support for the weapons systems that keep our Naval forces mission ready. This mission is carried out by a single command organization operating as a tenant activity of the Naval Support Activities in Mechanicsburg and Philadelphia. To support the Navy worldwide during 2005, NAVICP awarded contracts valued at $3.351 billion and filled 648,000 customer orders. Representatives will be available to talk with students about opportunities in Contracting, Logistics Management, and Financial Management. Information about the Naval Inventory Control Point agency can be found at www.navsup.navy.mil.

New Jersey Prevention Network

The New Jersey Prevention Network visits colleges throughout the state to raise awareness about careers in substance abuse treatment and prevention as well as the internships that are available statewide. Representatives will be on hand to speak with students about a variety of opportunities in the behavioral, human and social services fields. You can learn more by visiting www.njpn.org.

New Jersey State Police

The New Jersey State Police is one of the most diversified law enforcement agencies in the nation. It has remained in the forefront of creative policy, and investigative & technological change. This has helped to enhance and expand the original role of the State Police. Yet, there remains a network of stations that provide basic law enforcement services to all citizens of the state. The State Police are involved in a wide range of activities from educating communities to investigations and emergency management and have more than 120 specialized units. There are challenging opportunities for students in any major. Candidates must meet our minimum requirements prior to appointment to the academy and New Jersey residency is required. The representative from the New Jersey State Police will have information about opportunities, application procedures, job requirements and training. Visit web site www.njsp.org for more information.

NJ Department of Treasury

The New Jersey Department of the Treasury has challenging opportunities available for persons interested in entry level professional positions. These professional entry level opportunities are in the Accounting, Auditing, Investigative and Tax Representative fields. The State of New Jersey Department of Treasury has career fields ranging from Investigator Trainee (Criminal/Civil), to Accountant/Auditor Trainee (Taxation), and Tax Representative Trainee. Representatives from the NJ Department of the Treasury will be available to talk with all students regardless of major about the current opportunities, application procedures, training program and benefits. Interested students should visit the representatives at the Fair to obtain the most current information on how to get started. For more information visit www.treasuryjobs.gov

Philadelphia Police Department

Responsible for providing public safety to the citizens of Philadelphia. Representatives from the Philadelphia Police Department will be available to students from all majors who have an interest in the law enforcement field.

Prince William County Police Department

Prince William County is located in Northern Virginia approximately 25 miles south of Washington, DC. The Prince William County Police Department has over 500 sworn Police Officers that serves a citizen population over 360,000. This is an accredited law enforcement agency with a wide range of opportunities in several different specialties. Representatives will be available to speak with students from any major including Criminal Justice. They'll provide information about available entry-level positions, job requirements, salary and benefits. Visit www.police.pwccgov.org for more information.

Rutgers Alumni Relations Office

As an added service to our students, the Career Center and the Rutgers Camden Alumni Relations Office will each have an information table at the Fair. Stop by and find out about the wide range of services and benefits are available.

Rutgers Center For The Arts

Nestled in the heart of Rutgers University's Camden Campus, The Rutgers-Camden Center for the Arts (RCCA) is home to the areas finest touring artists in music, theatre, dance, and family entertainment from around the world and around the corner. RCCA offers a full range of arts programs, educational services and entertainment to the Southern New Jersey and Delaware Valley region. Our comprehensive facilities include the Stedman Gallery, Gordon Theater and the Black Box Studio. With vital distinction, RCCA promotes continuing interaction among the downtown arts and cultural district in Camden and the public throughout Southern New Jersey and Philadelphia. RCCA has internship, volunteer and summer opportunities available. Representatives for the Center will be available to speak with students in any major about these opportunities.

Sixth District Assembly Office

The Sixth District assembly Office representative is interested in talking with students who want to work in government. Seeking candidates with excellent research, writing, communication and PC skills. The position is legislative research based and involves policy development and analysis. Here's an opportunity to start your public service career.

SSA Mid-Atlantic Program Service Center

SSA is a public service organization which is responsible for ensuring that working Americans build protection for themselves and their families against the reduction in income with retirement, disability or death. They also ensure that beneficiaries receive their Social Security benefits in the right amount, on time and at the correct address. SSA staff deal directly with the public and provide a range of services that help applicants through the application procedure. These services are provided over the phone and in person at various District Offices. The Mid-Atlantic Program Service Center is one of six Processing Centers throughout the country which helps to administer SSA's retirement, survivor and disability benefit programs by processing programmatic output which is frequently very complex. SSA's computer system is one of the most complicated yet efficient in keeping track of millions of beneficiaries and claimants. Although there are currently no vacancies, there may be in the future. The SSA representatives have information about Telephone Service Representative, Claims Authorizer, Debtor Contact

The Children's Home of Burlington County

The Children's Home of Burlington County is a residential treatment center; day treatment; Special Education school for troubled youth. Representatives will share information about opportunities at both the Bachelor's and Master's levels in fields such as: Teaching, Residential Counseling, Human Services, and Social Work. For more information visit the www.childrens-home.org

The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society

The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society is the world's largest private organization concerned solely with finding cures for leukemia, lymphoma, Hodgkin's disease and myeloma, and improving the life of patients and their families. Since its founding in 1949, the Society has provided over $360 million for this research. Last year alone, the Society made over 441,000 patient contacts nationwide. The Society's representative is interested in talking to students about a variety of opportunities. For more information visit www.lls.org.

U. S. Army

The U.S. Army offers training programs for young men and women in a number of interesting and challenging fields. The Army also offers educational assistance in the form of cash bonuses, student loans, and funds for continuing education. The US Army is looking for qualified men and women for career opportunities in the Medical, Legal, Law Enforcement, Engineering, Finance, Administrative, and Aviation fields. Representatives want to talk to students in any major about the career options available through the Army and also its exceptional benefit package. Visit www.go.army.com for more information.

U. S. Probation Office

As a component of the federal judiciary, the United States Probation Office is responsible for investigating individuals convicted of federal crimes and supervising offenders conditionally released to the community by the courts, the U.S. Parole Commission, and military authorities. The Administrative Office of the United States Courts defines the mission of the U.S. Probation System as:

- To assist the federal courts in the fair administration of justice.
- To protect the community.
- To bring about long-term positive change in individuals under supervision.

For more information, visit www.njp.uscourts.gov/

U.S. Department of Education/OIG

The U.S. Department of Education provides funds to organizations who are involved in education. The Department of Education\Office of Inspector General (OIG) performs audits, investigations and inspections of all organizations that receive federal Department of Education funding either through grants or contracts. The Department of Education recruits for many positions; program specialists, program managers, administrative positions, IT specialists, program analysts and many more, The OIG recruits for auditors, special agents (investigators), financial analysts, inspectors, management analysts, IT specialists, and administrative support. A BS, BA degree. At least 24 credits in accounting is required for OIG auditor position. For more information, visit www.ed.gov.

U.S. District Court for the District of NJ

The U.S. District Court for New Jersey is located in Camden, Trenton and Newark, New Jersey. Currently seeking the position of a summer intern for the Camden courthouse located at 4th and Cooper Streets. Duties will include filing, phones, public interaction, data entry, and other administrative tasks. More information about the Court can be found at www.njd.uscourts.gov.

U.S. District Court, ED of PA

Within the U.S. District Court, Eastern District of Pennsylvania, the Clerk's Office is responsible for assisting judges in processing cases including all documentation and fees. In addition, handles the purchasing and personnel systems. Also manages the court's budget and performs other administrative assignments. Current opportunities involve administrative and support type assignments. Many students begin their careers with the acceptance of a support or paraprofessional position which leads to other opportunities. Students with any major should explore the career options the federal court system offers.

United States Postal Service

The United States Postal Service is one of the world's largest and diverse employers in the world. Career employees receive benefits with opportunities for advancement. Non Career employees receive competitive pay and valuable on-the-job training. The USPS website for employment is www.uss.com/employment. The USPS is interested in talking with students about its opportunities.

Volunteers of America

Volunteers of America is a local faith-based, non profit organization serving low-income, homeless, developmentally disabled and offender populations. Volunteers of America offers more than 100 different kinds of services in approximately 300 communities touching the lives of more than 1.7 million people a year. Volunteers of America Delaware Valley operates programs and services in the southeastern Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware area to assist those in need. Our programs provide community-based assistance to needy children, the elderly, the homeless, those with chronic mental health issues and ex-offenders returning to society. It is Volunteers of America Delaware Valley's policy to make every reasonable effort to accommodate individuals with disabilities to perform the essential functions to the job. Representatives will be providing information about positions such as: Program Assistant, Case Manager, Treatment Specialist, Development Manager, HR Coordinator, Case Aide, Residential Program Counselor, and many others. Students with a background or interest in Business, Finance, Human Resources, Criminal Justice,

Woods Services

Woods Services provides residential, educational and vocational supports for children and adults with exceptional needs. We serve more than 1,200 people with mental retardation and other developmental disabilities, challenging behaviors, emotional disorders. A full range of services are provided to assure that these individuals have a positive quality of life. Students interested or majoring in Health/Human Services, Nursing, Psychology, Physical/Occupational Therapy should find out about the interesting and rewarding positions Woods Services has to offer. For more information, visit www.woods.org.